Hi everyone,

I hope you're having a restful break!

As promised, here is the Google Doc for us to asynchronously brainstorm resolution ideas. Instructions are on the doc; please have your resolutions drafted by January 5th, 4:30pm.

On a related note, here are the 3 meetings we'll have as a committee in J-Term. Please block these times off in your calendar, and let me know if you have any conflicts! Locations TBA.

1. Jan 4th, 4:30-5:30pm [mandatory]: Discussing and refining resolution drafts
2. Jan 4th, 5:30-6:30pm [optional]: Calendar hold for hot-button issue discussion; I'm guessing we'll discuss transfer membership, but this might change depending on the results of the Transition survey
3. Jan 11th, 6-7pm [mandatory]: Committee vote on resolutions

As always, let me know if you have any questions!! Happy holidays yall :)

Hi all,

I hope you're having a good break! Two quick updates:

1. The meeting with Dean Manning where I'll present our committee's resolution ideas is on January 4th. If you have the time to write your ideas on the doc before Jan 3rd that would be really helpful, but no worries if not, we'll still keep the official deadline on Jan 5th @ 4:30 pm!
2. Based on the survey results, I am thinking (based on my very subjective perception of what seems most controversial on the survey) that we'll use our hot-button issue calendar hold to discuss increasing membership, but let me know if you feel differently! Another idea is to discuss changes to the competition instead.

Hi all,

For awareness, see screenshot below. CLS law journals appear to be taking a pause to review their admissions policy. Hope you all are having a great summer! Can't wait to call our new editors next week.

Best,

Hi [Redacted],

Thank you for sharing. We were aware of this and I'll just quickly note that CLR differently situated than HLR.

Thanks again & hope you're having a great summer!

Whoops — I hit send too soon. I hope you'll forgive my egregious typo (or at least not make fun of me too much in the Masthead). I should also have clarified that we've engaged with counsel on this prior to and following the decision so the below is not just my own opinion!

Glad to hear you've engaged counsel — my initial proposal!

No worries on typo
