Quite frankly, I don't even know why I was expecting any better from the administration or from Rosenbury. But long story short, we're not interested in attending your inauguration Laura. We're interested in seeing you leave.

In simplest terms, President Rosenbury's shameful tenure thus far makes me feel unsafe. When she speaks the exclusive, divisive, condescending, and anti-Muslim words she also gives a green light for hatred in our community. Shame on her. In my view, she is and has failed a basic requirement of her job- serve and act in the interest of all students, not just the ones whose lives she actually values and whose communities she seems worthy of mere acknowledgement.
